

hey friends and neighbors --

Lots going on here in our neighborhood...here's just a few:

- First Friday in beautiful downtown Estacada - Annette Reisbick's show at the Spiral Gallery
- Estacada's Festival of the Fungus is being held at the Estacada Community Center
- Go see a documentary about our own Joe Cotter

More details below about all gigs - something for everyone - no need to be "wandering aimlessly" in Estacada this weekend....

Be SURE to get to our Estacada Library before the holidays. The Good Old Dog "Art in the Library" Art Show, sponsored by the Estacada Area Arts Commission is FABULOUS. The portraits are GREAT and the haiku poetry is a LOVELY addition. It's one not to miss -- ESPECIALLY if you are a lover of dogs.

A WARM WELCOME to all the new DAWG readers this week. It's GREAT to have you join us. If there are new people in the neighborhood, and they'd like to know "all the cool and groovy" things that are happening, just have them send an email to: fun4ever50@gmail, and I'll add them to the list....

Be sure to peruse the DAWG from top to bottom, so you don't miss anything - I add new listings throughout the document...

WELCOME to all the new LUCKY DAWG eNEWS readers.

For those of you reading the DAWG each week, I THANK YOU.....

See you around town.....Be good to yourself.....

19 AMERICANISMS I LOST WHEN I MOVED TO AUSTRALIA

1. “You’re welcome.”

Aussies won’t say you’re welcome, instead you’ll hear “no worries mate” or “it’s alright.”

2. “I’m so spent right now.”

When you want to express how tired you are, switch it up to, “I’m so knackered right now.”

3. “I’m going on vacation to Bali for three weeks.”

Down under you’ll hear people say, “I’m going on holiday to Bali for three weeks.”

4. “Mickey Ds”

It’s all about the Maccas in Australia, even on the commercials. It’s uncommon to hear people call it McDonalds.

5. French fries vs. chips

In Oz, french fries are chips and chips are crisps. Get it?

6. “Who wants in?”

The closest Australian translation here would be, “Hey mate, you keen on...?”

7. “I love arugula salads.”

“I love rocket salads.” Arugula comes from the Italian word rucola, and in Australia, they call it rocket.

8. “There were tons of people at the bar last night.”

Change it up here to “there were heaps of people at the bar last night.”

9. “Buddy, pal.”

It’s always mate, in Aussie. You can call anybody mate, and you can pretty much put mate at the end of any sentence, mate. For instance, “There were heaps of people at the bar last night, mate.”

10. “How ya doin?”

To greet someone in Australia you would say, “How ya goin’ mate?” Or even, “G’day mate.”

11. “Do you have change for a $50 bill?”

An Australian would instead ask, “Hey mate, do you have change for a $50 note?”

12. “I went to New York for college.”

In Aussie it's, “I went to New York for uni.” Shortening words is a big part of Australian slang.

13. “I’m from America.”

Australia has a huge backpacker community, so it's more polite to say, “I'm from The US” or “I'm from The States,” because people from North, Central, and South America proudly claim to be from The Americas just as well.

14. “I love how the leaves change color in the fall.”

Instead: “I love how the leaves change color in autumn.” Aussies never say fall.

15. “My friend’s bachelorette party was tons of fun.”

You wouldn't hear bachelorette party. Oh no, coming from an old British phrase like many of Australia's terms, you would hear, “My mate's hen's night was heaps of fun.”

16. “Congratulations, good for you!”

“Good on ya mate.” A very popular phrase in Australia, people say this when they hear good news, or they want to congratulate someone. But it's also used sarcastically amongst friends, for instance if a friend stumbles when he/she is drunk you can say, “Good on ya mate!”

17. “Barbeque.”

Another example of shortening words to make Australian phrase, a barbeque is more often called a barbie.

18. “What are you doing for Australia Day?”

“What'ya doin for straya day, mate?” Australians will say, Straaaya when they want to refer to their country.

19. “Thanks.”

“Cheers, mate.” Cheers is often times replaced for thanks, mostly in casual situations, for instance after your bartender serves you your favorite beer.

Joe Cotter's Buckman Community Mural

Joe Cotter, one of our region's most beloved mural artists, (1949-2012) left a legacy of beautiful murals in Portland and in Estacada, Oregon as well as a changed legal landscape for Portland's public art.

Joe began work on the Buckman mural with extensive research about the history of the neighborhood, taking hundreds of photographs of area buildings and stately Victorian homes. Unlike many artists, Joe did not paint directly from these photos, instead using them as an architectural reference, drawing the houses from completely different angles. His meticulous and detailed approach to painting often saw him using a tiny brush on the huge wall.

Local history and the ties of community are important themes of his mural. Besides historic figures, portraits of Buckman neighbors and passers-by were incorporated into the finished design. Some of these community members are interviewed in the film.

The several seasons it took Joe to complete the mural underscores the challenges of painting outdoors: a long wait each year until reliable dry weather returns, interruptions by the public & other visitors (the mural is located next to a bus stop). Patience is demanded of outdoor muralists, especially for artists, like Joe, who are determined to create a highly narrative and meaningful work of art.

The Buckman Community Mural is located on the south-facing wall of the Plaid Pantry building at the corner of SE 12th Ave and Morrison St. Film production was funded by the Clackamas County Cultural Coalition, the Estacada Area Literary Foundation and by private donations from friends and supporters of Joe Cotter. With appreciation to Peter Appleton who collected hours of footage while Joe painted.

The Billycan Boys are a Portland area old time country gospel/bluegrass band performing original songs as well as classics from Bill Monroe and the Louvin Brothers. The four musicians offer up sweet harmonies and instrumentals to touch your heart & have you tapping your toes. Don't miss the fun!

How LED exterior lighting can help your business

Does your business have exterior lights mounted on your building or in parking areas? If they're metal halide or high-pressure sodium lights, it may be time for an upgrade. Energy Experts from Portland General Electric are offering free energy-efficiency consultations to help determine how energy-saving LED exterior lighting could pencil out for your business.

Compared to old-school technology, LED lighting uses 50 to 70 percent less energy and lasts up to four times longer.* It also improves nighttime visibility and safety by providing truer color and more even light.

A PGE Energy Expert can explain lighting upgrade steps and how you can get Energy Trust of Oregon cash incentives for LED lighting. Book your free consultation online at PortlandGeneral.com/EnergyExpert or call PGE at 800-822-1077.

#Oregonians Give...

#OregoniansGive

Black Friday. Cyber Monday.

#GIVINGTUESDAY

December 1, 2015

RESOURCES

What is #GivingTuesday?

We have a day for giving thanks. We have two for getting deals. Now, we have #GivingTuesday, a global day dedicated to giving back.

On Tuesday, December 1, people from around the world will come together for one common purpose: to celebrate generosity and to give.

It's a simple idea. Just find a way for your family, your community, your company or your organization to come together to give something more. And be a part of a global celebration of a new tradition of generosity.

What is #OregoniansGive?

"Oregon is an inspiration. Whether you come to it, or are born to it, you become entranced by our state's beauty, the opportunity she affords, and the independent spirit of her citizens." - Tom McCall

Hello, Oregonian. Whether you were born here, or chose this place as your home, you make Oregon what it is today - and you can play a part in a brighter tomorrow. #OregoniansGive will bring together people from every city, town, and rural community, in a statewide #GivingTuesday celebration of what it means to be Oregonian.

We're Oregonians. We've got this.

#OregoniansGive will change the way you think about the state you live in by encouraging philanthropy, empowering nonprofits, and inspiring fellow Oregonians in strengthening communities across the state. Whether through giving or by volunteering your time, you'll be a part of what makes Oregon the state we love.

Welcome to the next chapter in Oregon's history.

Welcome to #OregoniansGive on #GivingTuesday.

Chamber Board Members NEEDED...

Greetings Chamber Members:

The Estacada Chamber of Commerce is in need of more board members. This is an exciting time to be on board. In the past year we have developed a business plan and are on track to successfully complete our goals for 2015. We currently have at least two, maybe three, openings for board members for the next year starting January 2016. Terms are generally three years in length. We meet once a month for no more than two hours.

If you are interested, please let us know. If you would like to nominate someone, please respond to this email and send the name of your candidate. We will contact him or her.

Thanks for your interest and help.

5 Great Water Conservation Tips...

...That You Can Put Into Effect This Winter

Take Stock Of Your Water Usage Habits

Even if you're careful about your water usage in the home, chances are that there are important steps you're not taking and factors that you're not considering. As the air begins to cool, for example, you may enjoy taking a few extra minutes in a hot shower.

Standard shower heads use more than two gallons of water a minute. Even a small amount of extra shower time every day adds up to large water waste. There are a number of products, such as flow meter bags, that can help you gauge your water usage. It's easier to control your usage when you know your usage.

Water Plants Less

Cooler temperatures and increased rainfall means outdoor plants and lawns require much less water. Purchase a rain sensor switch to stop your irrigation system from coming on when it is raining and make sure your irrigation system is turned off and drained no later than October 31st to prevent the pipes from freezing during the winter.

Install Water Efficient Faucets and Shower Heads

While not running water needlessly, such as letting the faucet flow when scrubbing dishes after a large holiday celebration is a good step towards water conservation, many households can further decrease their water use by installing high efficiency faucet aerators and shower heads.

Upgrade Your Toilets

Toilets are the number one water waster in the home, replacing your old toilet with a new EPA High Efficiency Toilet (HET) is an excellent way to reduce unnecessary water waste. If you're unable to replace your toilets for any reason, you can use toilet tank banks, or fill cycle diverters to reduce the amount of water used per flush.

Check Behind the Scenes

Check all faucets and, wherever possible, pipes for leaks. A single drip may seem insignificant, but that volume adds up — a single dripping faucet can waste more than 3,000 gallons a year. To check for leaks in hidden pipes, monitor your water meter for an hour or two when no water is being used, if the meter dial is moving, there is a leak.

These tips are a good place to start, but they are just that, starting places. There are a myriad of different ways to conserve water at home. To learn more indoor and outdoor water saving tips, information about the Clackamas River Water Providers Rebate Program, and how to receive water saving devices such as tank bags, fill cycle diverts, flow meter bags, efficient faucet aerators, shower heads, and much more visit our website at www.clackamasproviders.org or call us at 503. 723. 3511.

Community Survey...

Healthy Columbia Willamette Collaborative to Launch Survey and Listening Groups as part of 2016 Community Health Needs Assessment

(November 5, 2015)—Beginning on September 1, 2015, the Healthy Columbia Willamette Collaborative (HCWC) will solicit community feedback for its 2016 Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA). This initiative will include an online survey starting September 1st designed to identify health needs of our communities.

The information collected from the survey will inform HCWC member organizations of their improvement activities. Examples from the 2013 process can be found at multco.us/healthy-columbia-willamette-collaborative/reports

This is the first year HCWC is offering an online survey, which will be available in English, Spanish, Russian, Vietnamese, and Chinese. To increase engagement in this data collection initiatives, HCWC is reaching out to over 200 local organizations. These organizations, which range from service groups to health clinics, will direct community members to the online survey.

The engagement efforts will launch at the start of September 2015, coming to a close in January 2016. HCWC wants to hear from as many community members as possible. In spring 2016, HCWC will analyze the findings resulting in a CHNA, or a summarized report of the health needs of local community members. This summarized report will be available on July 31, 2016.

To access the survey, visit www.healthycolumbiawillamette.org

DESCRIPTION OF SURVEY AND HCWC

Healthy Columbia Willamette Collaborative to Launch Online Survey as part of 2016 Community Health Needs Assessment

Beginning on September 10, 2015, the Healthy Columbia Willamette Collaborative (HCWC) will publish an online health survey to solicit community feedback for its 2016 Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA). The online survey is available in English, Spanish, Russian, Vietnamese, and Chinese.

HCWC wants to hear from as many community members as possible, and we need your help. Ways you can help include:

- Take the survey yourself
- Ask your co-workers, clients, patients, and populations you work with to take the survey
- Push information out on any social media channels your organization uses, Facebook, Twitter, Texts
- Display flyers in lobbies, waiting rooms, lunch rooms, etc.

Examples of social media messages are included at the end of this document.

Your opinions about the health of the community will be used, alongside other data, to identify the health issues people experience in Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington counties in Oregon and Clark County in Washington.

This information will directly inform the HCWC member organizations' community health improvement plans and activities that leverage collective resources to improve the health and wellbeing of our communities.

This is the second cycle of HCWC’s assessment and community health improvement work. Examples from the 2013 process can be found at multco.us/healthy-columbia-willamette-collaborative/reports

In spring 2016, HCWC will analyze the findings resulting in a public Community Health Needs Assessment, or a summarized report of the health needs of local community members. This summarized report will be available on July 31, 2016.

“ARTICHOKE”...

"We're all turnips and he's an artichoke" Jake (Jim Butterfield) tells Archie (Dan Roberson)

ARTICHOKE

by Joanna McClelland Glass
Directed by Tobias Andersen

OPENS, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 13th at 7:30

First produced on the west coast by the Oregon Shakespeare Festival and set on a Saskatchewan, Canada farm, this very funny and very human comedy/drama has been called "Prickly, but like its vegetable namesake, with a soft heart."

Farmer Walter Morley and his wife Margaret have barely been on speaking terms for years until Gibson, a man of learning and sensitivity arrives bringing a summer of upheaval and self-questioning. Margaret and Walter learn to let go of pride and connect once more with the heart. Filled with delightful, eccentric characters, "Artichoke is...quixotic and endearing...and very funny." (Christian Science Monitor).

The cast features Jim Butterfield, recently seen as Sir Toby Belch in Portland Shakespeare Project's Twelfth Night and Allison O'Neil, star of Portland Center Stage's hit musical, Grey Gardens and includes veteran performers Kelly Lazenby, Dan Robertson, Peter Baker, Carl Coughlan, and Michael Streeter. It is directed by Tobias Andersen, recipient of the Portland theater community's 2015 Drammy Award for Lifetime Achievement.

The production runs from November 13 to December 6. Show times are Friday and Saturday at 7:30 pm and Sunday matinees at 3:00pm. General tickets are $15.00, Seniors (60+) and Students $12.00. Not suitable for children under 12.

Tickets can be purchased on line at www.sandyactorstheatre.org or when available at the door.

Fall CCC Seasoned Adult Agenda...

College update, Nepal earthquake and Portland water on Fall CCC Seasoned Adult Agenda

OREGON CITY — The Seasoned Adult Enrichment Program (SAEP) presents weekly programs for seniors and retirees at Clackamas Community College’s Harmony Community Campus. The program provides seniors in the county with an educational experience designed and administered by “seasoned adults” in the community.

All classes are held Wednesdays at CCC’s Harmony Community Campus in Room OIT-191, unless otherwise indicated, and begin at 9:30 a.m. SAEP will not meet on Veterans Day, Nov. 11. This fall’s SAEP schedule follows:

Nov. 4: Field Trip: The Oregon Historical Society. Join a field trip to the Oregon Historical Society to view a special exhibit, “World War II: A World at War, A State Transformed.”

Nov. 18: “From Forest to Faucet.” Catherine Howells will talk about the history of the Portland Water Bureau and Portland’s great water.

Nov. 15, 22: CCC Theater Production. Enjoy a Sunday matinee performance of CCC's fall term theater production, "Sylvia" by R.A. Gurney. Matinee begins at 2:30 p.m. in the Osterman Theatre at CCC's Niemeyer Center. Purchase tickets online at www.clackamas.edu/theatre.

‘Sylvia’ opens Nov. 12 in the Osterman Theatre...

OREGON CITY – The CCC Theatre Arts Department opens its 2015-16 Main Stage season Nov. 12 with “Sylvia” by A.R. Gurney. The play is a modern, romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog.

Empty-nesters Greg and Kate have moved to Manhattan after living years in the suburbs. As Greg's career in finance is winding down, Kate's career as an English teacher is winding up. In a chance encounter in the park, Greg finds a dog (Or does she find him?) with only "Sylvia" inscribed on her name tag.

A street-smart mixture of Lab and poodle, Sylvia becomes a major bone of contention in Greg and Kate's relationship. Through hilarious complications and encounters with kooky characters it looks like the marriage is headed for the doghouse!

Featuring CCC students under the direction of Artistic Director James Eikrem, scenic and lighting design by Chris Whitten and costumes by Alva Bradford, “Sylvia” is a sure thing for a great night out at the theater for anyone who has ever loved a pet.

CCC’s performances of “Sylvia” are Nov. 12-22, Thursdays through Saturdays at 7:30 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. in the Osterman Theatre at Clackamas Community College. An additional “pay what you can” performance is Friday, Nov. 20, at 10 a.m.

For ticket information and reservations, visit clackamas.edu/theatre or call 503-594-3153.

There are LOTS of new people moving to our neighborhood. I wish that they ALL could know about the LUCKY DAWG eNEWS. Many have told me that if it wasn't for the DAWG they would have missed an event that interested them. SO...

...I had business cards made. (see above). I plan to distribute them around town to be picked up by those interested. Do you know new people in the neighborhood; or perhaps even some of your friends who want to know what's going on? If you'd like some of these cards, to help inform peeps about all the FUN things happening around here, just let me know; and I'll get some cards to you. My THANKS to Paul Strobel, our own State Farm Insurance guy; Linda Arnett from the Book Nook; Tamera Nielson from Oregon Massage & Lymphedema Clinic; and Michele Kinnemon at our own Estacada Public Library, who are all handing these cards out to all the new Estacada residents they meet... Would you like some LUCKY DAWG eNEWS business cards, to hand out too?

GREAT NEWS -- once again you can read the DAWG online -- for years I was grateful that Dan Skoog posted the DAWG online; and now Jordan Winthrop has graciously "picked up the torch" to do so. So now you can read the LUCKY DAWG eNEWS either as it arrives in your email; or online at EstacadaLocal.com. Find it here <http://estacadalocal.com/news/lucky-dawg-e-news/> always know that if you have local friends and family who'd like to receive this weekly "LUCKY DAWG eNEWS" email, send me their email address and i'll add them to my list -- if this one email once a week has become overwhelming, and a simple "delete" will put your over the edge, let me know and i'll pull your name from this list.....

if you have anything you'd like to put in this weekly newsletter, please email it to me BY wednesday at midnight, of any given week; in a "cut and paste form" -- keep in mind that images/pictures are more interesting than just WORDS; -- this email generally goes out on thursdays -- it may or may not "make the cut," so please don't take it personally if it doesn't.....

well kids, that's what i know for now -- go out and meet someone new, do something novel and eat something extraordinary..... :).

aren't we LUCKY DAWGS to be living in estacada, the BEST place on earth?!!!

enjoy one another -- we're all in this together :).....
